

Danny Hassin

Contents:

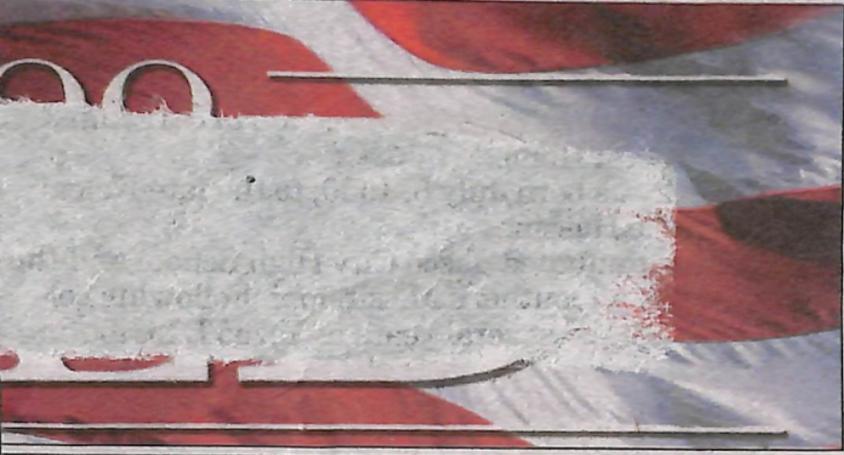

- Newspaper clipping

Location: Vertical Files at B.S. Ricks Memorial
Library of the Yazoo Library Association | 310 N.
Main Street, Yazoo City, Mississippi 39194

See Back
also

YAZOO Herald P. 1
Wed April 3 2019

YAZOO COUNTY JOB FAIR
May 14, 2019 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.
National Guard Armory
2201 Gordon Avenue

One Section ~ 16 pages ~ $1.00

Facility is dangerous

even control a riot. If we have a riot, the sheriff's department is supposed to come and help out. But they have two officers on duty. If they are way out in the country somewhere, we are sitting out there in an open field with no support team." Warden Jay Shaw said he arrived on the job about nine months ago, and he brought many of the issues Ceasar spoke of to the table. However, See Jail, Page 3

Herald File Photo

Danny Hassin is pictured with his wife Margaret and mother Lucille at their store on Broadway in this photo from 1993. The popular retired business owner died last week at age 68.

Retired business owner Danny Hassin dies

By JASON PATTERSON
Editor & Publisher

Retired Yazoo City business owner Danny Hassin died on March 28 at age 68.

As a second generation owner of Hassin's on Broadway, Hassin made many friends in Yazoo through his business.

Hassin's had a reputation for quality clothing and customer service.

His parents, Keleal and Lucille Hassin, first opened the store in 1947. They lived upstairs above the store with their four children until they built a home on Grand Avenue in 1958.

Danny bought the business in 1978. He and his wife continued the tradition, and his mother continued working at the store.

He retired in 2002 and later moved to Flowood.

He is survived by his wife of 45 years, Margaret; sons, Drew of Jackson and Matthew of Old Saybrook, Connecticut; brothers, Keleal Hassin (Pat) of Gulfport, and Charles Hassin (Molly) of Spring, Texas; sister, Diane Hassin Porter (Jay) of Montgomery, Texas; and grandchildren, Andrew Hassin, Atticus Hassin, and Abigail Hassin of Madison.

Funeral services were Tuesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

ern-style
lementary.

